Promote your real estate with the quality it deserves, check out Zoon's portfolio and see why some of Calgary's most prestigious realtors, developers and builders trust Zoon for all their real estate media needs.

THE VISION

In today's web-driven real estate market, media is the new curb appeal. In short, you have as little as 20 seconds to either differentiate your property and build buyer interest or lose a prospect forever. Since 2010, Zoon has been developing and perfecting an approach to real estate media that delivers premium quality, but with the speed and affordability this market demands. Zoon is focused on developing lasting relationships with our clients that extend beyond the services we provide. Our commitment to reliability and quality aims to ensure a partnership with our clients, an invested interest in growth and success.

FLOORPLANS AND MEASUREMENTS

Complete your listing package with Zoon's insured floor plan and measurements services. Floor plans are the perfect companion to our industry leading photography, providing home buyers with the ability to fully visualize potential properties. Our services are E&O insured, removing any potential risk for buyers, sellers, and agents.

DRONE SERVICES

High definition drone footage and photography is the only way to ensure that buyers get an opportunity to see a property in its entirety, offering glorious panoramic views and unmatched perspective.

3D TOUR

Virtual Reality is revolutionizing how home buyers view properties online. Buyers are able to see potential properties as if they're actually there, providing unparalleled exposure for your listings. Zoon's 3D virtual tours provide a new perspective on home buying, offering a fresh and convincing way to sell real estate.

VIRTUAL STAGING

Whether the property is a cozy mountain cottage or a newly built inner-city infill, Zoon can digitally stage the property to fit the key client taste. At a fraction of the cost of traditional staging, and with a virtually unlimited portfolio of staged furniture, the ability to adapt the space to whatever style you prefer in a short amount of time gives your real estate property an undeniable advantage among competitors.

CAPTIVATING VIDEOGRAPHY

High quality, high-definition video production is a service that is guaranteed to drive interest to your real estate listing. Zoon's industry leading real estate videos offer a perspective that has never previously been available. Zoon's use of videography in real estate media has proven to drive interest and increase activity with real estate listings through an enhanced perspective of the virtues of a property.
